Words of Inspiration from Fred Rogers

Pastor Jodie

“In the external scheme of things, shining moments are as brief as the twinkling of an eye, yet such twinkling's are what eternity is made of... moments when we human beings can say “I love you”, “I’m proud of you”, “I forgive you,” “I’m grateful for you,” That’s what eternity is made of: invisible imperishable good stuff.”

(Fred Rogers, The World According to Mister Rogers: Important Things to Remember)

Call To Worship

“Just A Closer Walk With Thee”

Sunday 10-27-2019: What If I Let God Down continued:

And what about my concerns with letting God down?

My pastor put that to rest one day with a simple but very profound truth: “How can you let God down when you aren’t ever holding him up?” I had to choose to operate in the assurance of God’s love, the remembrance of God’s grace and the reality of God’s power. And according to Psalm 37:24, God’s the one holding me up, not the other way around.

Monday 10-28-2019: HANNAH’S PRAYER (Please Read Luke 1:46-55)

Hannah’s prayer echoed the longing of God’s people. They were waiting for a king who would reign with power and bring stability and safety to Israel. Hannah’s prayer demonstrated the characteristics of a world under the rule and reign of God. It will be a world where God delivers his people, silences his enemies and brings justice to the entire world. The longing for a king like this is expressed in Hannah’s final words. She prayed with anticipation for a king that would be strengthened and anointed by God. Hannah directed the reader toward a messianic figure, a savior of God’s people, who would bring justice and peace to the world. Years later, Mary, the mother of Jesus, offered a prayer similar to Hannah’s (Lk 1:46-55). Mary’s prayer anticipated the arrival of a far greater King who would do what no Old Testament king could do—usher in the rule and reign of God.

Prayer

Jesus, thank you for preserving Hannah’s prayer for the generations who followed her. Thank you for being both the King of the universe and the King who hears our individual prayers. Amen.

- Jesus centered Prompt: Every week you'll be invited to take part in a creative new way to pay ridiculous attention to Jesus and others.

Review your schedule of events and plans for next week, asking Jesus, "What's standing between us?" Then ask for his ideas for removing or rescheduling these things.

Sunday 10-27-2019: What If I Let God Down (John 10:27-30)

Have you felt like a failure in an area of your life? I did. For many years I struggled with my weight. It was a physical struggle that I kept separate from my spiritual life. It was one thing to let myself down with every diet failure. Why in heavens would I risk letting God down too? But here's the problem: My weight issues were dragging me down physically and spiritually, whether I admitted it or not. When I don't have peace physically, I don't have peace spiritually. I can't separate the two. Nor should I. I need spiritual motivation to step in where my physical determination falls short. So I started reading the Bible from the perspective of someone struggling with food issues. Though I had read the Bible many times and have even taught Bible studies for years, I'd missed how much God cares about and talks about this issue. I wept as God's truth started changing my heart. Those changes in my heart helped me make lasting changes in my habits.

The Gospel According To Mr. Rogers

(sung) It's A Beautiful Day In The Neighborhood Video...

*It's a beautiful day in this neighborhood, a beautiful day for a neighbor.
Would you be mine? Could you be mine?*

*It's a beautiful day in this beauty wood, a neighborly day for a beauty.
Would be mine? Could you be mine?*

I have always wanted to have a neighbor just like you. I've always wanted to live in a neighborhood with you. So, lets make the most of this beautiful day.

*Since we're together we might as well say,
"Would be mine? Could you be mine? Won't you be my neighbor? Won't you please, won't you please? Please won't you be my neighbor?"*

Closing Benediction

Pastor Jodie

People of God, listen! Let us love the Lord our God.

We will love God with all our heart, with all our soul, with all our mind, and with all our strength.

And let us love our neighbor.

We will love our neighbor as we love ourselves.

Through our love, may the Kingdom of God come near, in our lives and in our world.

We will live near the heart of God. Amen.
